

Sean Carter
Lawpsided Seminars
Mesa, Arizona

In nearly a decade of law practice after graduating from Harvard Law School, Sean Carter represented such clients as GNC, Experian, The Boston Beer Company, Homeside Lending, Safelite Auto Glass, J. Crew and many others. In 2002, Mr. Carter left the practice of law to pursue a career as the country's foremost (and perhaps only) Humorist at Law.

Mr. Carter is the author of the first-ever comedic legal treatise -- If It Does Not Fit, Must You Acquit?: Your Humorous Guide to the Law. His syndicated legal humor column has appeared in general circulation newspapers in more than 30 states, including The Los Angeles Times. Mr. Carter also wrote a weekly humor column for lawyers that appeared in the ABA e-Report from 2003 to 2006.

As a legal commentator, Mr. Carter has appeared on local television programs and is a frequent guest on talk radio shows across the country. In 2003, the Radio-TV Interview Report dubbed Sean Carter as "America's Funniest Lawyer."

Mr. Carter is a frequent presenter for state and local bar associations, law firms, in-house corporate legal departments and law schools. Each year, he presents more than 100 humorous programs on such topics as legal ethics, stress management, constitutional law, legal marketing and much more.

Finally, Sean lives in Mesa, Arizona with his wife and four sons.
